About the Books

A celebration of the colorful spectrum of what it means to dream and the many ways to find happy!

While the world tells us to sit still, to follow the rules, and to color inside the lines, Happy Dreamer celebrates all those moments in between when the mind and spirit soar and we are free to become our own true dreamer maximus!

In Peter Reynold's signature voice and style, this empowering picture book reminds children of how much their dreams matter, and while life will have ups and downs, he enlists readers to stay true to who they are, to tap into their most creative inner selves, and to never ever forget to dream big!

An enchanting invitation to self-expression... With a simple, witty story and free-spirited illustrations, Peter H. Reynolds entices even the stubbornly uncreative among us to make a mark -- and follow where it takes us.

We are delighted to announce that New York Times bestselling children's author and illustrator, Peter H. Reynolds, will visit Godwin School on Thursday, June 15, to discuss his new book, Happy Dreamer. The author will be speaking to students in grades K - 2.

An author visit is a wonderful opportunity for young readers to meet the creators of the books they read, and we have arranged for both students and teachers to purchase autographed copies of their books. Please consider extending this learning experience through the purchase of an autographed book.

About the Author

Peter H. Reynolds is a New York Times bestselling author and illustrator of many books for children, including The Dot and The North Star. His books have been translated into over twenty-five languages around the globe and are celebrated worldwide. In 1996, he founded FableVision with his brother, Paul, as a social change agency to help move the world to a better place by creating "stories that matter, stories that move."
